Episode One

WALK THIS WAY (the one with Dad's pants)

Picking up from the elementary pedestrian safety taught to younger age-groups, Safe and Sound (and Sound's clueless Dad) take a more grown-up look at appropriate behaviour on the streets, road-crossing and pedestrian safety which we all know, can be a bit more complicated.

GAME: THE STREETS A test of strategy! Guide Dad around "The Streets" in a series of increasingly challenging levels from Asbo Pavilions to the precinct to the chippy.

Episode Two

WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE (the one with zombies)

New School: New Danger! Safe and Sound are off to Big School. Naturally Dad's worried, but our heroes always keep it Safe and Sound and they have a journey plan.

GAME: STRICTLY ROUTES

"Strictly Routes" helps kids make and print personalised plans for their own journeys... it even works out what time they'll need to set off, and has a plan B in case anything goes wrong!

Episode Three

WHEELS OF STEEL (the one with Metz & Trix)

As Safe and Sound hurry to the gig that could make their names, we discover that some of the things thought less pedestrians sometimes do can look VERY different from behind the windscreen of a car.

GAME: CHILL OUT Everybody's heart lifts a little when the bell rings for the end of school... but it's the worst time to get carried away and forget your safety, so join DJ Sound for a 3.30pm chillout set, as he cools down the euphoria outside the school gates... with a large water pistol.

Episode Four

WORLD WITHOUT SOUND (the sad one)

"It only happens to other people"... Is the story going to have a sad ending after all? The final episode and suddenly we're asking "What if?", as reality is brought home to one and all.

GAME: BE SAFE & SOUND Recap and self-test your knowledge of the issues we've dealt with in a tense quizshow format. You might not end up a millionaire, but with any luck, you'll be Safe and Sound!
